Homework

How is a human's worth measured in today's world?

How have you measured others or yourself by the same standard as the world?

What are the ways people try to save themselves from this world of sin and death? What ways do you try to save yourself?

How does the Incarnation validate the image of God in every human being?

What ways can you be embodied Christians in a disembodied world?

What steps can you take to begin seeing people as image bearers?

What ways can you begin seeing people as potential images of Jesus?

Digging Deeper

While the image of God is corrupted because of sin, it is not totally gone (see Genesis 9:5-6). In what ways is the image corrupted? (See Romans 5:12, 19) In what ways is it still within us?

Paul writes how through Jesus we are being made into a new creation (See 2 Cor 5:17; Ephesians 4:24). How do we experience that while we are waiting for the final resurrection?

In what ways do our bodies reflect the image of God?
