Learning is a _____ of God

_____ learning leads into a _____ of God

Christian learning isn't meant to make _____ feel _____ as an
_____.

To grow in _____ is to grow with _____

Learning is a _____ not a _____

Sam talked about a lecture and a lab approach, Why is learning in community a crucial part of the Christian faith?

Whats an easier image for you to accept that you are a meant to be: part of the body of Jesus, or an individual connected with Christ?

According to Ephesians 4 how does the body of Christ grow?

Do you think that sometimes theological or biblical knowledge is treating like something to collect?

Have you been in a situation where someone spoke the truth without love? What tends to be the outcome?

What do you think it means to speak the truth in love?

Digging Deeper

Read Matthew 11:28-30

What do you think we can learn about learning from Jesus in this passage? Do you think he has in mind classroom learning or learning done in daily life?
