

Small Group Week Ten Sunday November 13th

_____ is not something that _____ with you.

“you will be _____ in every way to be _____ in every way”

God wants us to _____ with _____ hearts

To _____ to others means that there has to be a place where I

_____.

Our _____ flows from our _____ of faith.

Where does Christian generosity begin?

What do you think it means to be cheerful as we give?

How did the provisions of seeds and bread communicate God's faithfulness to the Corinthian church?

Think about a time in your life when you were worried about your finances, How did that season change your relationship with God?

What is harder for you to give: time, talents, finances?

Why do you think Paul calls the Corinthians gift a “submission that comes from your confession of the gospel of Christ”?